6. BRIEFING ON HOMELESSNESS SERVICES FROM CRISIS HOUSE

Lori Saldate introduced the Crisis House staff and gave a presentation on services offered by the Crisis House.

Lori's staff handed out information on the Homeless Emergency Aid Program (HEAP) to the Task Force.

Stephanie Murphy asked how much funding Crisis House asked for from HEAP.

Lori stated they received $300,000 but asked for $1,000,000.

Jack Major asked how people are being housed in the program.

Lori stated they are doing a housing assessment to determine if they can meet client needs but are housing people for 12 to 24 months through rapid rehousing.

Jack Major asked if clients need to have an income.

Lori's staff stated that it helps if clients do have an income but they are not required to.

Stephanie Murphy asked how people refer potential clients to Crisis House.

Lori handed out information on how to refer clients to Crisis House.

Megan Dunn stated that she can present to the group information about "Yes In My Back Yard" if desired.

7. BRIEFING ON HOMELESSNESS SERVICES FROM HOME START

Laura Tancredi-Baese gave a presentation on the services offered by Home Start.

Chris Shilling from Home Start presented information about specific programs Home Start offers using HEAP funds and the partnerships they are involved in.

Greg Humora asked Chris to talk about the coordination that occurs between Home Start and Crisis House.

Wayne Anderson asked what is Home Start's funding based on.

Laura stated that HUD looks at Point In Time (PIT) counts and other data to determine funding.

Wayne Anderson stated that it would be great to have a "clearinghouse database" to better help during homeless contacts between different organizations.

Captain Matt Nicholas talked about the challenges of data sharing between organizations.

8. BRIEFING ON HOMELESSNESS SERVICES FROM THE SALVATION ARMY

Greg Humora stated that the Salvation Army could not attend and asked the Task Force if they wanted to reschedule the Salvation Army.

The Task Force stated that they wanted to reschedule the Salvation Army.

Greg Humora introduced Captain Matt Nicholass to the Task Force.

Captain Nicholass gave a brief presentation on his role in the department with homelessness, the current challenges with offering services, and the police department's partnerships with local organizations.
